MINNESOTA LOGGER EDUCATION PROGRAM

Applicants to MLEP will be considered provisional members until requirements listed below have been completed. Those applicants who satisfy provisional program requirements will achieve full membership status and will be entitled to program benefits. Those applicants who do not satisfy program requirements by December 31st following application date will be dismissed from the program.

Program members will be required, on an annual basis, to apply for membership renewal and complete requirements necessary to maintain membership status. Program members who do not complete annual renewal requirements will have allowed their membership to lapse and must reapply to the program as a first-year applicant.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS INCLUDE:

1. Attendance at classes as determined by the MLEP Board of Directors.
2. Certification of all legal requirements listed below necessary to operate a logging business.
3. Verification of timber harvesting equipment ownership.
4. Signing of the program Code of Ethics and returning it with the completed program application.
5. Payment of annual membership application fees as outlined on the front side of this application.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Minnesota Logger Education Program requires the following of a business owner and one person per crew actively responsible for the logging site:

First Year Training Requirements

Provisional members and first-year applicants are required to attend training addressing Minnesota's Forest Management Guidelines (BMPs), first-aid and CPR.

Guideline Training: 6 equivalent hours of training on Minnesota's Forest Management Guidelines (Online Only - information will be sent after membership application is received)

Safety Training: 8 hours of first-aid and CPR training is required (LogSafe)

Annual Training Requirements

To maintain MLEP membership, a business owner and one person per crew actively responsible for the logging site must attend:

Safety Training - Twelve (12) hours of safety training every two years to include:

- Eight (8) hours of CPR/First Aid training (4 hrs. CPR and 4 hrs. of First Aid)
- Four (4) hours of Safety Training (OSHA)

Continuing Education - (6) hours of MLEP training every year through workshops on any accepted continuing education topic.

MLEP members must complete a minimum of 6 hours of MLEP and LogSafe training each year. Logging employees (in-woods) are required to attend at least 4 hours of safety training each year and complete CPR/ First-Aid training every two years.

At a minimum, SFI requires that "Each crew must include a qualified professional who 1) Has completed the SFI training program; 2) Is the owner of, employee of or contractor for the wood produced; and 3) Has direct responsibility and is onsite regularly to carry out the roles and responsibilities of the qualified logging professional (e.g. safety, protection of soils, streams and other waterbodies).
